HERE SHE IS Meet Her at the Subway and Get $100

By the Girl with the Mystic Key

How can I ever have the nerve to try to enter the subway at Park street at 4:30 this afternoon? The more I think about it, the more scared I get. I am sure somebody will catch me before I get within a block of the Park street entrance.

The more I think about it, the more nervous I get. However, I have a little scheme that I think will get me clear up to the subway entrance and may even get me inside. I won't tell you what it is now. You will all laugh when you see it.

I won't promise to arrive there exactly at 4:30 o'clock, either. You must give me a few minutes leeway. It is always 4:30 until it is 5:30, you know.

Some time between 4:30 and 5:30 this afternoon I shall positively try to make my way to the Park street entrance to the subway.

The first person who approaches me before I succeed in getting into the subway at Park street, and who says to me, "Are you the girl with the Mystic Key?" will get $100 in gold.

The person whom I fear most today are the women. They are so much cleverer than men in seeing through a girl's tricks.

I am almost certain that some woman will catch me today within one hundred feet of the subway.

The funniest thing about it all is that the AMERICAN insists upon printing my picture so that every body can see just how I look. The AMERICAN may do this if it likes, but there is one thing it can't do—it can't print a picture showing how I will look after I am dressed up to go out this afternoon. It can show my face, but it can't show how my hair will be dressed nor what sort of a hat I will wear, and these things do make such a difference in a woman's looks, you know.

About 3 o'clock this afternoon I am going out to take a little walk on Tremont street. I am going to walk somewhere between Boston and South streets on Tremont. Of course, if you capture me then you will get the reward, providing you use the proper question. But I don't mean to say you will catch me there.

There are various ways of getting through a crowd, and I think I shall succeed at least once at 4:30, but after 5:30—nobody knows what will happen then.

You people who are trying to catch me think it is a lot of fun. Maybe it is for you, but it's not for me. I am serious now. It's the most serious thing that ever happened in my life.

Never mind.

I am going to walk on Tremont street some time around 3 o'clock this afternoon.

I am going to remain in that vicinity until I endeavor to get into the subway at Park street. I shall do my best to get into the subway not earlier than 4:30 p. m., and not later than 5:30. Somebody is sure to catch me there and earn the money.

If any person approaches me on Tremont street, anywhere on the Common, or on Park street near the Park street entrance to the subway and says to me, "Are you the girl with the Mystic Key?" I will promptly exhibit the card and accompany that person to the office of the BOSTON AMERICAN, where he or she will receive $100 in gold.

(SIGNED) THE GIRL WITH THE MYSTIC KEY.

RUSHING TROOPS FOR WAR

Russia and Turkey Mobilizing Great Armies on the Frontier in Preparation for Immediate Hostilities—Sultan's Assurance Indicates He Is Supported by Some Other Power.

LONDON, Feb. 17. Both Russia and Turkey are mobilizing their troops and rushing them to the Caucasian and Persian frontiers, according to dispatches from Tiflis and Armenia to-day.

The reds or Turkish army reserves in Van, Mush and other Armenian villages have been called to the colors.

The Sultan is preparing for immediate hostilities. The boldness with which he appears to be meeting the threat of war with so formidable a power as Russia is considered in light strongly at assurances, at least of moral support from without.

Revolutionaries Active.

At the same time the agitation is being increased by the Turkish revolutionary parties. Appeals and petitions are being issued exhorting the population to protest against the warlike attitude of the Sultan, the long-held belief that war would be disastrous at this time because of the famine prevailing in Asia Minor.

At the same time, the revolutionaries are being strongly urged to take the initiative in the war, and that a new war will be fought in the Balkans more than when the last was fought.

Generals in Heavy Fight.

Meanwhile, heavy fighting is being done in the Caucasus, where the Russian and Turkish forces are engaged in a series of battles. The Russian forces are being pushed back in several places, and the Turkish forces are being pushed forward in others.

BOBBIE GIVES BAD 'JOLT' TO CRIME WAVE

Cambridge Sleuths Spring to Action When Young 'Fence'
Makes 'Confession.'

WON'T 'PEACH' ON 'PALS'

Yesterday a distressed looking mother brought little Robbie and a bundle into the "Jail" at Station 2. Captain "Jim" peered over the top of his desk wondering what awful crime had now been perpetrated.

Tears in the mother explained that Robbie had brought this bundle home to her, after it had been given to him by some older kids who had broken into the boys' club quarters. This was supposed to be Robbie's share.

Lost Returned to Police

"Captain Jim" opened the bundle, and his horrified gaze beheld a pair of dimmed, faded trousers, some socks, mittens, two pairs of shoes and a few small toys. "That's all," he said, "the number of the other boys." After a warning about the other boys, Bobbie was sent home with mamma.

"That's all," Bobbie said. "I was playing dimmish with the boys. I was afraid of their picking me up to go into the club with them. I didn't know just what to do. They teased me and I was afraid to tell mamma. I was afraid to bring a bundle. I took it home and gave it to mamma. She was angry and brought me and the bundle to the station. That's all I know about it."

"That's all," said the mother, "and of the other boys. I know, my mamma told me. I'll tell you all about it. I'll know better next time, anyhow."

Meanwhile Captain "Jim" has some more to say.

are doubtless shaking in their guilty shoes by this time.

AMATEUR NIGHT AT MONOPOLY LODGE

TRY THIS ONCE

With a rat¹ and a cat²
 Put your breakfast³!
 Do not the best you can do in 19
 (singing)
 And then do just the best you can
 The rest of the day!
 Be thankful for the good you have!
 As for the rest, forget it!

NEVER take a cold bath. UNLESS you have PREVIOUSLY TAKEN VERY VIOLENT EXERCISE AND BROUGHT THE BLOOD TO THE SURFACE, OR UNLESS you HAVE TAKEN A WARM BATH AND PRODUCED THE SAME EFFECT IN THAT WAY.

Never take a cold bath at all. UNLESS you ARE A VERY STRONG INDIVIDUAL. MAN OR WOMAN.

With the exception of the few above suggestions, the clipping sent to us seems to be all right.

The bill is full to the brim with other permits and grants. It will be worth while to watch the progress of these bills. BOTH WILL BEAR watching.

Meanwhile public spirited men will do well to get copies of the proposed laws and study them THOUGHTFULLY. They will shed some light on the audacity of the present-day corporation.

WHILE STROLLING DOWN THE STREET
A TRUST I CHANCED TO MEET.
HE TOOK MY WATCH AND POCKET BOOK AWAY,
WITH HOWLS OF FIENDISH GLEE
A SHOUT HE HANDED ME,
AND THESE UNFEELING WORDS HE THEN DID SAY:-

(CHORUS)- "EVERY LITTLE BIT ADDED TO WHAT I'VE ALREADY ACCUMULATED MAKES A SHAPE, BUT WELCOME ADDITION TO MY STORE."

"COME AND WANDER FORTH WITH ME
WEALTH THE RARE APPLE TREE,
AH! I'LL ROB YOU AS I'VE ROBBED YOU AT BEFORE"

WHY DOES
ROCKEFELLER ALWAYS WEAR A PLAIN WAIST COAT?

HE'S TROUBLED WITH DIARRHEA AND HAS TO KEEP A CHECK ON HIS STOMACH.
